Merry Christmas!!

And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. Luke 2:10 – 11

Emmanuel. God with us.

Were it not for Jesus, none of humanity would ever have really understood what God is like. Sure, we could read about his nature and love in the Old Testament. But with Jesus, everybody could finally see exactly how God would think and talk and act in everyday life. How would God interact with others? How would he treat even enemies or people that do “bad things?” A lot of people were surprised at what they saw.

Thank God, not only for showing His love for us by sending His Son into the world, but also for showing us what true love really looks like: How it thinks, how it acts, how it treats others, how it puts others first and sacrifices for them, how it doesn't seek revenge, and especially how love shows grace and mercy - even as it follows unchanging Truth. How to be a better person, a better friend, a better spouse, a better father or mother – even how to be a better brother or sister. It's all there!!

Not a 2016 redefined “love” but a true love that has existed since the world was created. A love to which everybody is drawn – whether we admit it or not.

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. John 3:16

If we want to make a difference in the lives of others this Christmas season, let’s try to live out the following beautiful words that describe true love (charity – love in action):

Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up, Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil; Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth; Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. 1 Corinthinans 13:4-7

We will be in Lexington as usual this Wednesday and in Morehead Friday.

Merry Christmas from the Knight family.
