

Knight Family Farm Newsletter* – May 22, 2017

What is it?

This week we have a riddle. If you think you know the answer, go to www.KnightFamilyFarm.com and use the Contact Us page to send your guess. (Sorry, but no email or text this time.) The first person to answer it correctly will receive a $10 gift certificate for our products. Please note that we can't respond to each guess directly. We will post the winner in next week's newsletter.

Here's the question:

Over the years I have observed that every animal we have raised on our farm (cows, sheep, chickens, cats, geese) does this several times a day – starting at birth. HINT: Most people could also do it, but in my experience, few do very often – even though it would be good for them.

Goose Eggs

We thought Sarah's special Goose was going to stop laying eggs a month ago, but she just took a little break and has been pretty faithfully laying one every other day since then. She lays much better than is typical for a goose, but we suspect it's because she is such good friends with Sarah, and that Sarah shares so many things with her. :) We do still have those available if you are interested. $1.50 each or $7 for half-dozen.

Top Sirloin and Bones

We usually have way more demand for our beef bones than we can supply, but at the present time we do have some extras. First come- first served.

I mistakenly removed Top Sirloin steak from our product list a few months ago, so it's back now. A customer recently remarked about how the Top Sirloin was extra tender this time.

Delivering to Lexington Wednesday
